Einat Frydman

Deputy General Manager, Ferring Pharmaceuticals

An Operations executive with 20 years pharmaceutical drug, medical device, biotechnology and life sciences operations experience in early stage pre-commercial start-up and commercial manufacturing.
Expert in operational execution and long term strategic planning in performance and profitability.
Management experience including manufacturing, materials, engineering, facilities, EH&S, process development, commercial development, validation, distribution and cost modeling.
Vast experience in quality manufacturing and quality operations including root cause and corrective action preventive actions (CAPA), preventive maintenance, loss reduction and yield improvement.

Leadership philosophy promoting employee participation in creative problem solving to contribute to organizational success.